

AFROHUN ONE HEALTH ACADEMY

Apply by
Jan 15

TRANSBOUNDARY DISEASE RISK COMMUNICATION AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT (RCCE) USING A ONE HEALTH APPROACH

The AFROHUN One Health Academy (AOHA) is a regionally coordinated platform that offers online courses in tandem with Mentored Experiential Learning and Training (MELT) designed to give participants hands-on experiences in tackling global health security challenges in Africa and beyond. Join us for our 2024 session on Transboundary Disease RCCE using a One Health Approach. All levels welcome to apply!

VIRTUAL PREREQUISITES

Dates: January – February 2024
7 online modules RCCE01, RCCE02, RCCE03, RCCE04, RCCE05, RCCE06, RCCE07

EXPERIENTIAL TRAINING

Dates: March–May 2024
Choose from 6 field sites across Africa to participate in hands-on learning for 2 weeks

CAPSTONE PROJECT

Finish the experience with 12 weeks of mentorship with one of our faculty or partners to complete the capstone project

afrohun.org

cmuhumuza@afrohun.org

AFROHUN ONE HEALTH ACADEMY

afrohun.org

VIRTUAL PREREQUISITES

Dates: 22nd January – 19th February, 2024
Monday, Wednesday, Fridays & Weekends
Cost: $450

Courses:

- RCCE 01: Fundamentals of One Health and One Health Approach
- RCCE 02: The African People, their Culture and how it relates to One Health
- RCCE 03: Working With communities effectively in a Multidisciplinary manner
- RCCE 04: How to effectively communicate and mitigate disease risk among stakeholders Disease Specific Modules Delivered Concurrently
- RCCE 05: How to prevent and control rabies as a Multidisciplinary professional
- RCCE 06: How to prevent and control rabies as a Non-Health Professional
- RCCE 07: The art and practice of COVID – 19 prevention and control using a One Health approach

EXPERIENTIAL TRAINING

DRC/Uganda: Arua Cross Border Site

Dates: 4th March – 16th March 2024

Cameroon: Yaoundé Site

Dates: 25th March – 7th April 2024

Tanzania: Kilosa and Kisarawe Sites

Dates: 29th April – 10th May 2024

Senegal:

Dates:

Kenya:

Dates:

Côte d'Ivoire:

Dates:

Cost: $2,500 for African citizens;
$3,500 for non-African citizens;
pricing excludes flights

CAPSTONE PROJECT

Participants will be required to complete a capstone project under the mentorship of an in-service professional. Participants may be paired with an AFROHUN faculty member or other AFROHUN affiliate. Participants may also choose to be mentored by an in-service professional of their choosing. Capstone projects should focus on real world solutions to community problems using the One Health approach.

Dates: 12 weeks following the field experience

Please visit our website for more information. Applications due 15th January 2024.

afrohun.org

cmuhumuza@afrohun.org

Apply by
Jan 15

TRANSBOUNDARY DISEASE RISK COMMUNICATION AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT (RCCE) USING A ONE HEALTH APPROACH

VIRTUAL PREREQUISITES

Dates: 22nd January – 19th February, 2024
Monday, Wednesday, Fridays & Weekends
Cost: $450

- Courses:
- RCCE 01: Fundamentals of One Health and One Health Approach
  - RCCE 02: The African People, their Culture and how it relates to One Health
  - RCCE 03: Working With communities effectively in a Multidisciplinary manner
  - RCCE 04: How to effectively communicate and mitigate disease risk among stakeholders Disease Specific Modules Delivered Concurrently
  - RCCE 05: How to prevent and control rabies as a Multidisciplinary professional
  - RCCE 06: How to prevent and control rabies as a Non-Health Professional
  - RCCE 07: The art and practice of COVID – 19 prevention and control using a One Health approach

EXPERIENTIAL TRAINING

DRC/Uganda: Arua Cross Border Site
Dates: 4th March – 16th March 2024

Cameroon: Yaoundé Site
Dates: 25th March – 7th April 2024

Tanzania: Kilosa and Kisarawe Sites
Dates: 29th April – 10th May 2024

Senegal:
Dates:

Kenya:
Dates:

Côte d'Ivoire:
Dates:

Cost: $2,500 for African citizens;
$3,500 for non-African citizens;
pricing excludes flights

CAPSTONE PROJECT

Participants will be required to complete a capstone project under the mentorship of an in-service professional. Participants may be paired with an AFROHUN faculty member or other AFROHUN affiliate. Participants may also choose to be mentored by an in-service professional of their choosing. Capstone projects should focus on real world solutions to community problems using the One Health approach.

Dates: 12 weeks following the field experience

Please visit our website for more information. All levels welcome to apply. Applications due 15th January 2024.